ABOUT THIS PROGRAM
The finance minor provides students with a foundation in coursework that introduces them to the principles of finance, applies these principles to financial issues, and develops problem-solving and quantitative skills that are widely used in business. The finance minor consists of 18 hours of academic preparation.

MINOR COURSEWORK
- ACCT 221 Accounting Principles I
- BUAD 121 Principles of Management
- BUAD 241 Business Finance
- Three from: BUAD 340, 341, 344, 346, 354, 401
- BS in Accountancy, Entrepreneurial Management, Human Resource Management, or Marketing students must take 12 unique credit hours to earn a minor in Accountancy in addition to their majors in Accountancy, Entrepreneurial Management, Human Resource Management, or Marketing