TRINITY CHRISTIAN COLLEGE
OFFICE OF COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS AND SERVICE-LEARNING
SERVICE-LEARNING STUDENT REFLECTION SURVEY

Course:

Semester and Year (i.e. Spring 2011):

Student Name:

Service Learning is a teaching and learning strategy that integrates meaningful community service with instruction and reflection to enrich the learning experience, teach civic responsibility, and strengthen communities. (From the National Service Learning Clearinghouse)

1. Please list your service site(s):
2. Please select a response (strongly disagree – strongly agree) to each of the following statements about your specific site/project.

- Overall, I had a positive experience.
  SD  D  N  A  SA
- The agency provided me with enough direction, supervision, and support.
  SD  D  N  A  SA
- The service I completed was valuable to the organization.
  SD  D  N  A  SA
- The service helped me to better understand content learned in class.
  SD  D  N  A  SA

Comments on above:

3. Based on your experience with service-learning, if you were to see a course in the Trinity catalog with service-learning in the description, what would be your initial response?
   - More interested in taking the course
   - Less interested in taking the course
   - Indifference

Trinity Christian College
OCPSL

Please return your completed survey to: carrie.timmermans@trnty.edu
4. Do you have any concerns about participating in service-learning in the future? Please select all that apply.

- The service-learning project may take too much time.
- I don’t see how the service will connect to course objectives.
- Finding transportation to a service site may be difficult.
- Other:

5. Please select a response (strongly agree – strongly disagree) to each of the following statements.

- I know the community (the Chicagoland area) and its needs well.
  SD  D  N  A  SA
- I believe that the service component enhanced my learning in this course.
  SD  D  N  A  SA
- I believe serving others and the community is important.
  SD  D  N  A  SA
- I learn best when course material is applied to real-life situations.
  SD  D  N  A  SA

6. Other comments:

Thank you!
Your responses help the OCPSL in improving service-learning opportunities!

Trinity Christian College
OCPSL
Please return your completed survey to: carrie.timmermans@trnty.edu