CHRISTIAN MINISTRY AND LEADERSHIP

CHML 101 Introduction Church and Ministry (3)
Fall
This course is designed to introduce students to the theological foundation for and the historical development of ministry and calling within the context of the local church. The course will seek to provide students with an understanding of the tools that lead to their own philosophy of ministry (mission, vision, and core values) within the various church ministry settings. Contextual models of ministry will be examined in this course.

CHML 201 Administration and Leadership for Church and Ministry (3)
Fall
This course serves as a basic introduction to the principles and issues related to administration and leadership within any ministry setting. Issues to be studied include the definition of leadership, the vision of a leader, and the heart of a leader and many of the practical challenges of daily ministry leadership. Prerequisite: CHML 101.

CHML 202 Introduction to Youth Ministry Leadership (3)
Spring, Even
This course will examine the nature and needs of adolescents, their moral and faith development, and models for youth ministry in the local church and/or Christian organization. Prerequisites: CHML 101 and sophomore standing.

CHML 203 Spiritual Formation (3)
Spring
This course will introduce students to foundational concepts and practices in the area of the spiritual disciplines, which provide a needed pathway for their own spiritual formation and ability to teach spiritual formation to others. Stages of spiritual formation and its barriers also are discussed. Prerequisite: CHML 101 or permission of the instructor.

CHML 302 Evangelism for Church and Ministry (3)
Spring, Odd
A study of the theology, history, culture, and practice of mission in the context of the local church and/or Christian organization, including a brief overview of evangelism and mission in the urban and cross-cultural mission settings. Prerequisites: CHML 101 and junior standing.

CHML 305 Urban Ministry Leadership (3)
Spring, Odd
This course will introduce and expose students to issues related to ministry in urban areas. Students will gain an understanding of both the challenges and rewards of ministry in urban settings. Students also will be exposed to an understanding of holistic ministry in the urban setting. Prerequisites: CHML 101 and junior standing.

CHML 307 Worship Leadership (3)
Fall, Odd
This course will introduce students to worship in the Old and New Testaments, with an overview of its development over the centuries. The primary focus is on the theological development of worship in a postmodern world. Included in this focus is the development of skills and strategies for planning and leading public worship in a variety of ministry settings, the development of a worship team, and the necessary formation of a worship leader. Prerequisites: CHML 101 and junior standing.

CHML 399 Independent Study (1)
Varies

CHML 400 Field Education/Internship (6)
Fall, Spring

CHML 401 Senior Seminar (3)
Spring
Students will meet to discuss how a Christian worldview specifically influences the development and implementation of ministry leadership, and plans and strategies that have been developed throughout both the Foundations program and the entire church and ministry leadership major. Students will revisit the philosophy of ministry they began to develop in Church and Ministry Leadership 101, seeking to refine it toward the specific ministry setting they anticipate working in. Students will be guided to integrate biblical knowledge, exegetical skills, critical reading skills, philosophy of ministry and leadership skills in various ministerial settings.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

CJ 121 Principles of Criminal Justice (3)
Fall
This course sets crime in the context of a basic Christian sociological analysis of society and people’s needs, opportunities, norms, structures, and conceptions of justice. It examines society and the roles of society and government in providing a context for socialization, employment, education, freedom, equality, and justice. It provides exposure to such crucial concepts as crime, criminal, justice, punishment, and legal system. The need for a fair and effective justice system, including alternatives, pervades this introduction to the field.

CJ 201 Comparative and Alternative Criminal Justice Systems—CCS (3)
Spring
This course gives a broad basis on which to analyze the nature of justice and from which to compare and critique the
